4 X 4 TRACKS

The more than 80 kilometers of tracks on Les Comes terrain make this location the ideal place to practice 4×4 at all levels.

These routes are divided into colors according to the difficulty:

INITIATION CIRCUIT

DIFFICULTY ● ○ ○ ○ ○

Ideal to see in a small space the characteristics of our vehicle and its abilities. The place to experience the first sensations at the wheel of our Land Rover.

RED TRACKS

DIFFICULTY ● ● ● ○ ○

They are more delicate and broken tracks that can get worse depending on the inclement weather. The reducer begins to be useful.

GREEN ROUTES

DIFFICULTY ● ○ ○ ○ ○

Of low difficulty, ideal for beginners and users of SUV vehicles who want a simple experience but with excellent views of the Bages region.

DIFFICULTY ● ● ● ● ○

The reducer is essential and mandatory. Broken roads with steep slopes and sometimes deep ruts. It is advisable not to enter these paths alone and in case of bad weather accessibility to these is practically nil.

BLUE TRACKS

DIFFICULTY ● ○ ○ ○ ○

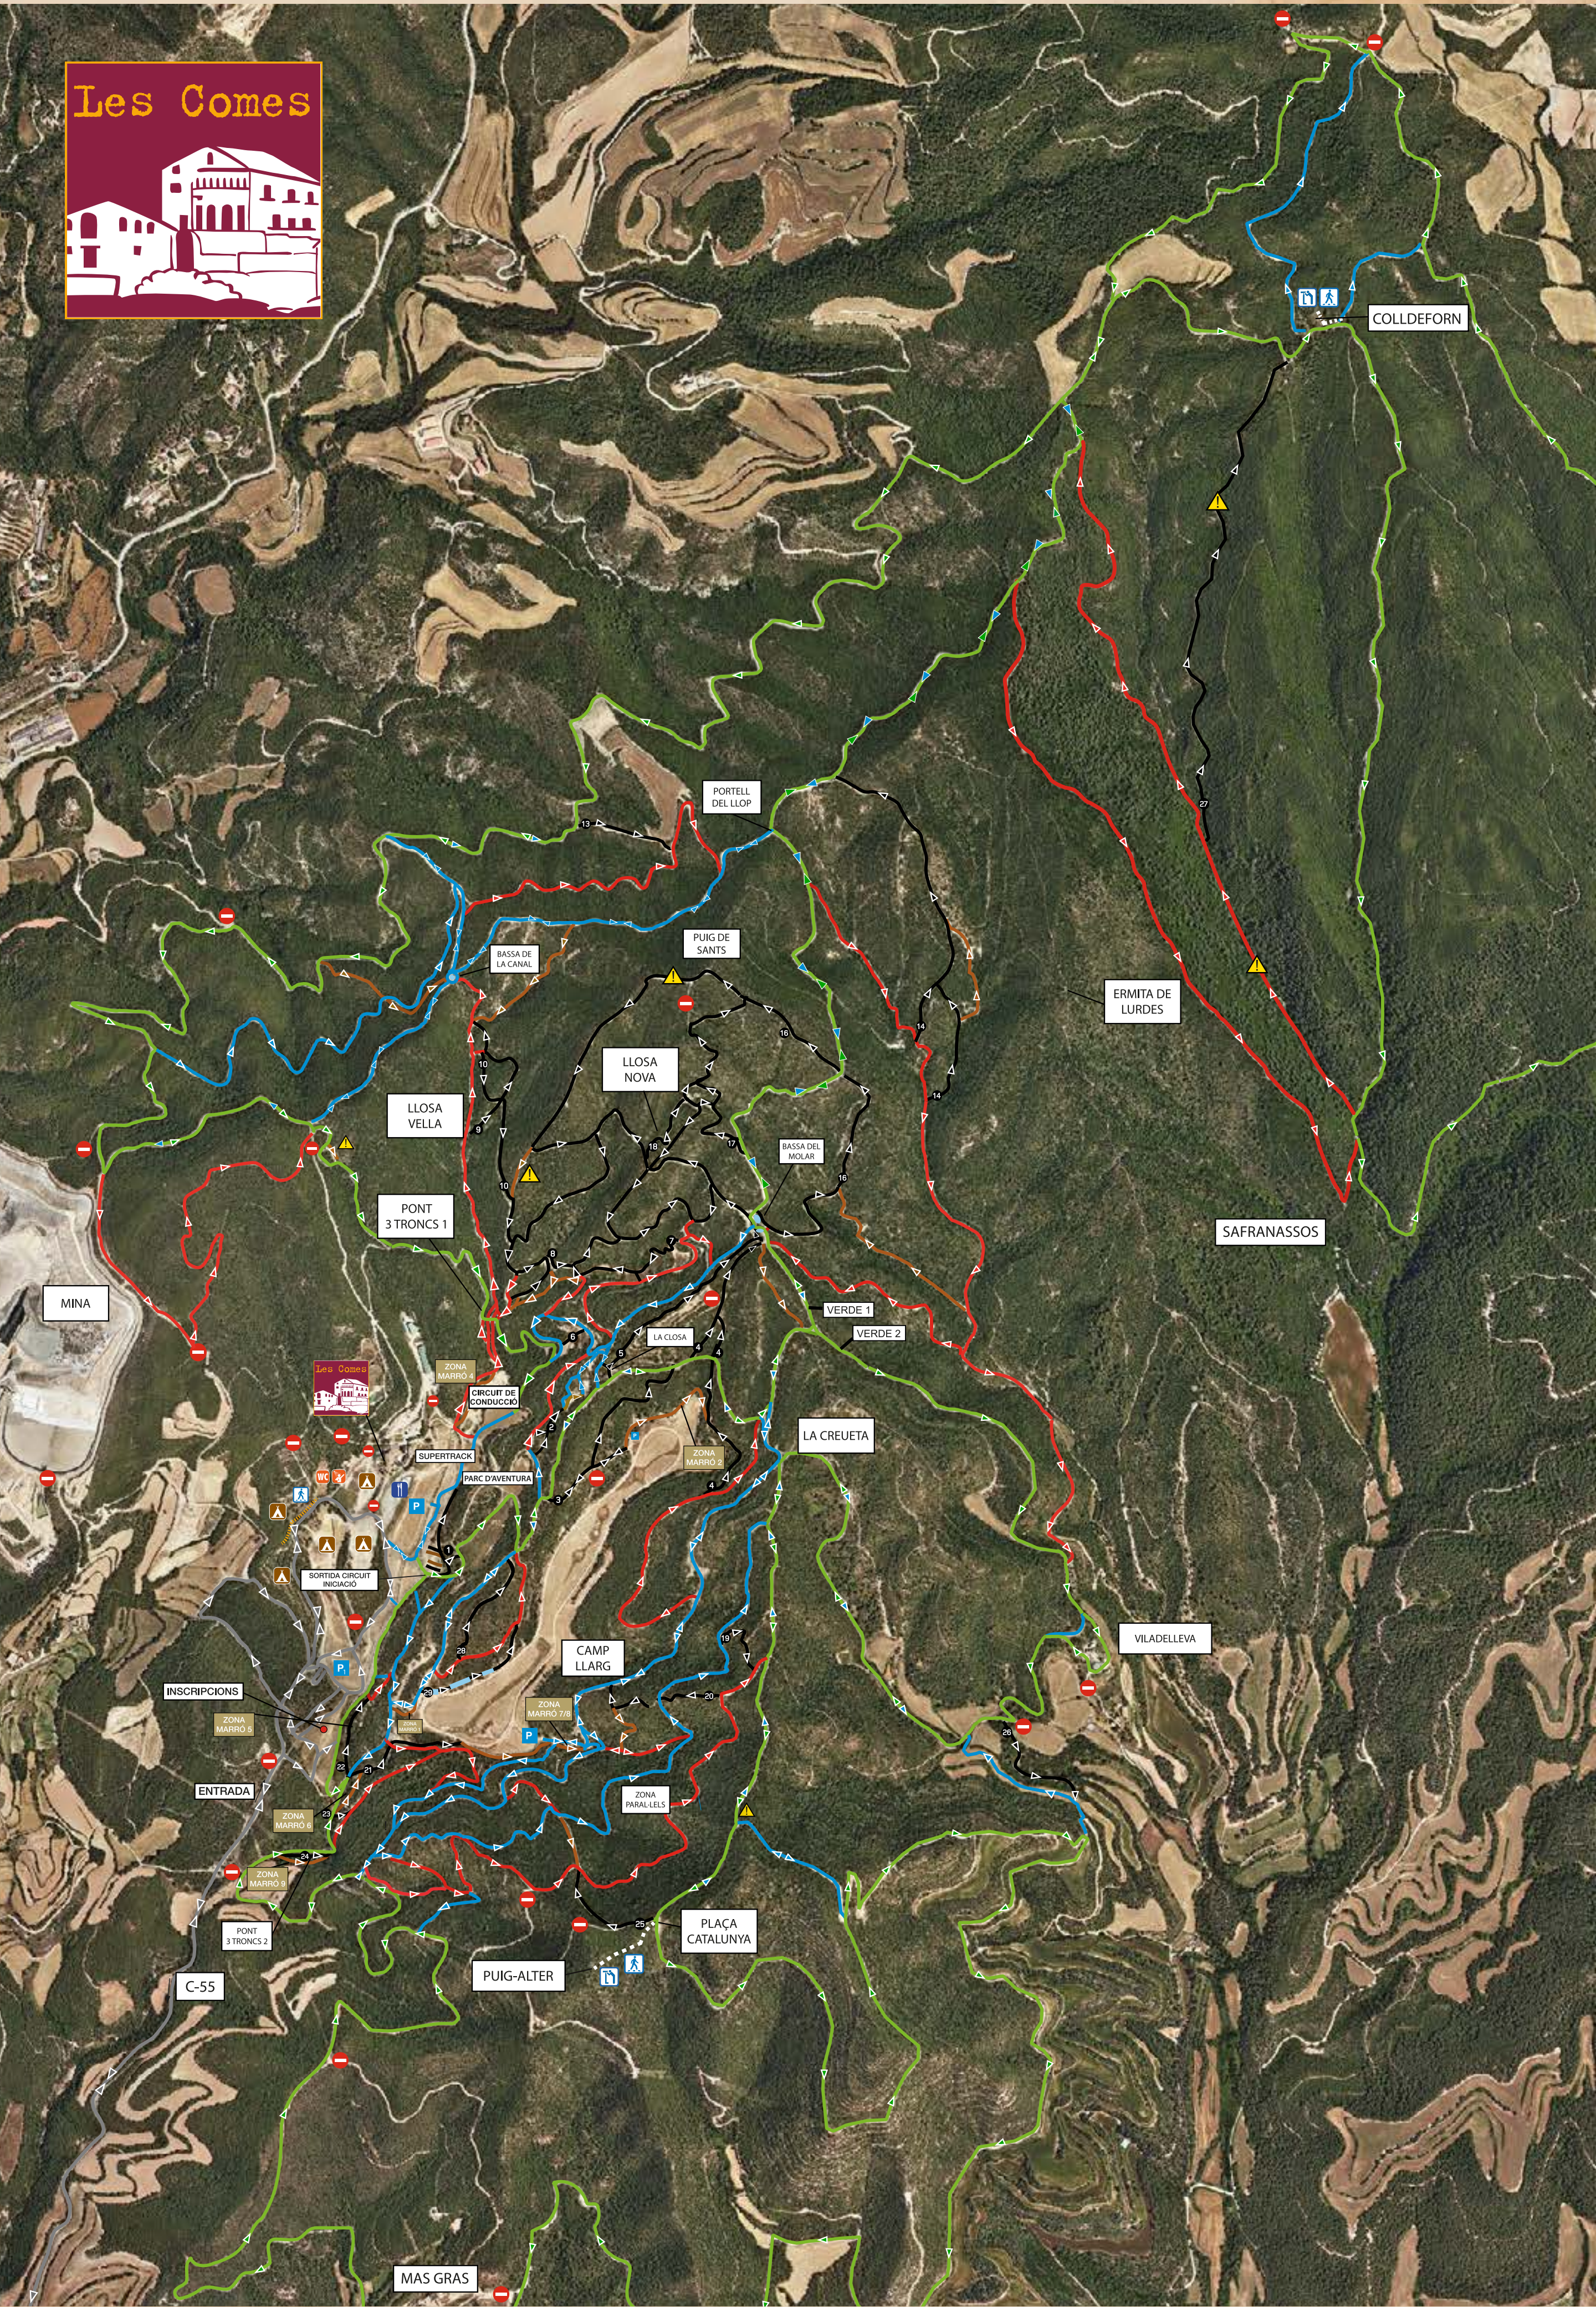

Tracks created expressly for SUV vehicles. Without a doubt, a good excursion for participants who, without putting their vehicle at risk, can test its performance.

BROWN AREAS

DIFFICULTY ● ● ● ● ●

Only for experts and prepared vehicles. They are the areas with maximum difficulty dedicated to those who do not care if the vehicle “gets dirty” to say the least. It is recommended to carry rescue tools such as the Winch, the sling, the Hi-Lift etc.

POINTS OF INTEREST

In Les Comes we have places that, due to their characteristics, can mark the history of 4×4 in the Peninsula. Discover them:

LLOSA NOVA

ACCESS ● ● ● ●
DIFICULTY ● ● ● ●

One of the most charismatic spots in Les Comes. A side step on a natural stone floor that will lead us to another difficult step such as a “V” step prior to the climb to Puig de Sants. A route suitable for vehicles with gearboxes and experienced drivers.

PUIG DE SANTS

ACCESS ● ● ● ○
DIFICULTY ● ● ● ○

Difficult access, difficult realization. The highest point of Les Comes (614m). It is accessed by an ascent with a lot of loose stone and it is lowered by a no less demanding descent with a step that is difficult to cross in the middle of the descent.

PUIG ALTER / PLAÇA CATALUNYA / PARAL·LELS

ACCESO ● ○ ○ ○
DIFICULTY ● ● ○ ○

Easy access. The difficulty of the realization will depend of the tracks you take at this point. The highest parallel in the area is located on the Puig Alter mountain (522 m). In this mountain we will find a set of paths that run parallel and that are joined together at some points by tracks that are difficult to carry out. It is especially interesting to pass through black and red tracks from one parallel to another. At the point of Plaza Catalunya you can find beautiful views of Montserrat.

SAFETY AND THE ENVIRONMENT

- Drive with caution, minimizing erosion and avoiding damaging the terrain.
- As slow as you can, as fast as necessary. This motto will get you through most obstacles while minimizing your environmental impact.
- Follow allways existing paths.
- Make sure your vehicle is well prepared for the trip. Bring adequate tools and spare parts, regularly check the condition of the engine and avoid losses of oil, fuel and hydraulic fluids.
- Be responsible for your actions, even when you are not driving; use biodegradable or ecological cleaning products, wash the vehicles away from water currents (rivers, streams, etc.) and take the garbage home.
- Do not make fire in areas that are not properly marked for this purpose.
- Use the tools of your vehicle responsibly and make good use (winch, winch, etc.). If you have any questions about the use of these tools, ask the organization.
- Do not put the cable of your winch directly to the trees, use slings to avoid damaging them.
- If your vehicle is equipped with Terrain Response, put it in the proper position before venturing with gearboxes on difficult surfaces. In this way you reduce wheel spin and damage to the ground. The same applies if your vehicle has a differential lock.
- Before getting back on the road, check the condition of the lights, tires and bodywork, and clean the license plates. Once on the road, drive slowly to prevent damaging other users with mud or rocks that could jump off your tires.
